

Friday, November 5, and
Saturday, November 6, 2010
Lecture Hall
Canadian Mennonite University
Winnipeg MB

Second Annual Symposium of CISPCR

The Canadian Institute for the Study of Pop Culture & Religion

Friday, 7:00pm; Saturday, 10:30 - 3:30. Admission is $2 (suggested).

Friday: Film Screening - Kill Bill, Vol. 1 (directed by Quentin Tarantino, 2003) followed by Q & A Session.

Saturday: Keynote Address by Paul Dyck, Ph.D. (Canadian Mennonite University):
"Love as Vengeance in Quentin Tarantino's Kill Bill."

with papers by:

Michael Gilmour, Ph.D. (Providence College): "The Far Side of Religion: Notes on the Prophet Gary Larson."

Randall Holm, Ph.D. (Providence College): "Hollywood Deconstructs god."

Karen Sunabacka, Ph.D. (Providence College): "'That Other Voice, Wordless and Terrible':
The Life Giving Screams of Rachel Cameron, Alice Bag, Yoko Ono
and Buffy the Vampire Slayer."

Brian Froese, Ph.D. (Canadian Mennonite University): "Little Slaughterhouse on the Prairie: Cannibalism, Mutilation and The Apocalypse in Frontier Horror."

All are welcome to attend.

For more information, visit cispcr.org or email info@cispcr.org